PHOTOGRAPHIC EXHIBITION

"An act of perception alone, even when acute, is insufficient to produce a work of art. There must also be the compulsive force of the imagination, for only the imagination has the power to turn fact into art. We say a person has 'vision' when he combines a capacity for heightened perception with a sensitive imagination and is strongly affected by mood." (Graham Collier, Form, Space, and Vision. ## LACROSSE

The Governor Dummer lacrosse team opened the season with an easy 15-4 win over the MIT Freshmen. Their fine play continued through the first half of the next game as they held a strong Andover team to three goals, leaving the field at the half down 3-2. However, poor defensive play by the Red in the third period enabled Andover to win 8-4. The Brown freshman game followed a similar pattern. Down 3-2 at the half, the Governors allowed the bigger and more experienced team to score eight additional goals to their single tally. The lax team regained its confidence by defeating the Tufts Freshmen 22-1. The score was a new Governor Dummer lacrosse record. The Red team set a new high by edging Exeter for the first time, 7-6. Poor play and a complacent attitude lost the next game and the league championship as the Governors were trounced by the St. Paul's School, 9-2. Making effectual use of Tabor penalties the following weekend, the team won the Tabor-GDA Challenge Cup. Coach Heb Evans commented that "the defense played its best game of the year."

Although the 1965 season was a strong team effort, there were many outstanding individuals. Captain Garry Leahey, chosen the most valuable player, was elected to the All-New England first team; while the team's second high scorer, Jim McGuire, made honorable mention. The high scorer with twenty-five goals and five assists was Andy Leonard. Goalie Ford Schumann played well throughout the season with one hundred and fifty-nine saves in fourteen games. Captain-elect Tom Heald played well all year and should lead the team to another successful season.

Recognition should also go to coaches G. H. Evans and to R. E. Anderson for their efforts and their willingness to contribute.

The Governor Dummer baseball team was poor, the play was poor and the record was poor. It was a rare accident that such inexperience and inability was combined to represent the school on the varsity level.

Perhaps the only good aspect of the season was the consistently excellent pitching of the team's most valuable player, Ted Caldwell. As the captain-elect, Caldwell won only three and lost eight; however, his ERA was an exceptional 2.19. His best performance came against Roxbury Latin when he struck out twenty-six opposing batters in seventeen innings. The rest of the pitching staff consisted of Biff Clark, who was more noted for his ability to hit home runs and play center field. Joining Clark in the outfield were John Mackenzie and David Holmes.

The infield was unusually weak. Captain John Haydon found it difficult to adjust to the change from third base to shortstop, his hitting was affected, unfortunately. Haydon was unable to hit over three hundred as he had done the year before. Senior Brian Merry, sophomore Winston Burt, and freshman John Schaefer played first, second, and third, respectively. The catcher was Ralph Sexton.

With four returning lettermen and Ted Caldwell, the team should improve on its .153 batting average and its dismal seasonal record. Experience will be a deciding factor in next year's success.

Although the Governor Dummer Track team was not undefeated, as in the past few years, the season was very successful. There was a constant pressure on each member of the team to do his best. The Governor's spirit showed itself in the first meet of the season as the Red defeated the MIT Freshmen, and set three track records. Co-captain Jay Allen, Steve Uhl, and David Fuess brought the team its only first in the Exeter Relays the following weekend, but the team showed reasonable strength by placing in nine of the fourteen events.

The loss to Moses Brown on April 19, ended a twenty-one meet winning streak. However, tri-captain-elect Charlie Estes set a new record in the two mile run and Allen set records in the shot and the discus. The Deering meet restored the confidence of the team as Co-captain Doug Hannon and tri-captains-elect Jeff Weber and Grove Cooke scored valuable points to secure the meet. Allen broke his own record in the discus with a heave of 143' 11". The ideal weather conditions of the meet with St. Paul's resulted in personal best by David Fuess and John Bryer. The high point of the season was the last meet against Hebron. The Red placed first in twelve of the seventeen events winning 75-56.

Mr. Sperry summed up the season saying, "The improvement of this year's team has made it one of the most rewarding teams I have coached at GDA." The coaching of Mr. Sperry, Mr. Mercer, Mr. James, Mr. Fenn and Mr. Higgins was most instrumental in making this season as successful as it was.

Strengthened competition and the loss of two returning lettermen were key factors in this year's dismal performance. The team lost its first two meets, but came back with two consecutive wins, beating both Marblehead and the Belmont Hill School. Despite two losses in the following week, the team concluded their season with a 7-0 win over St. Sebastian's.

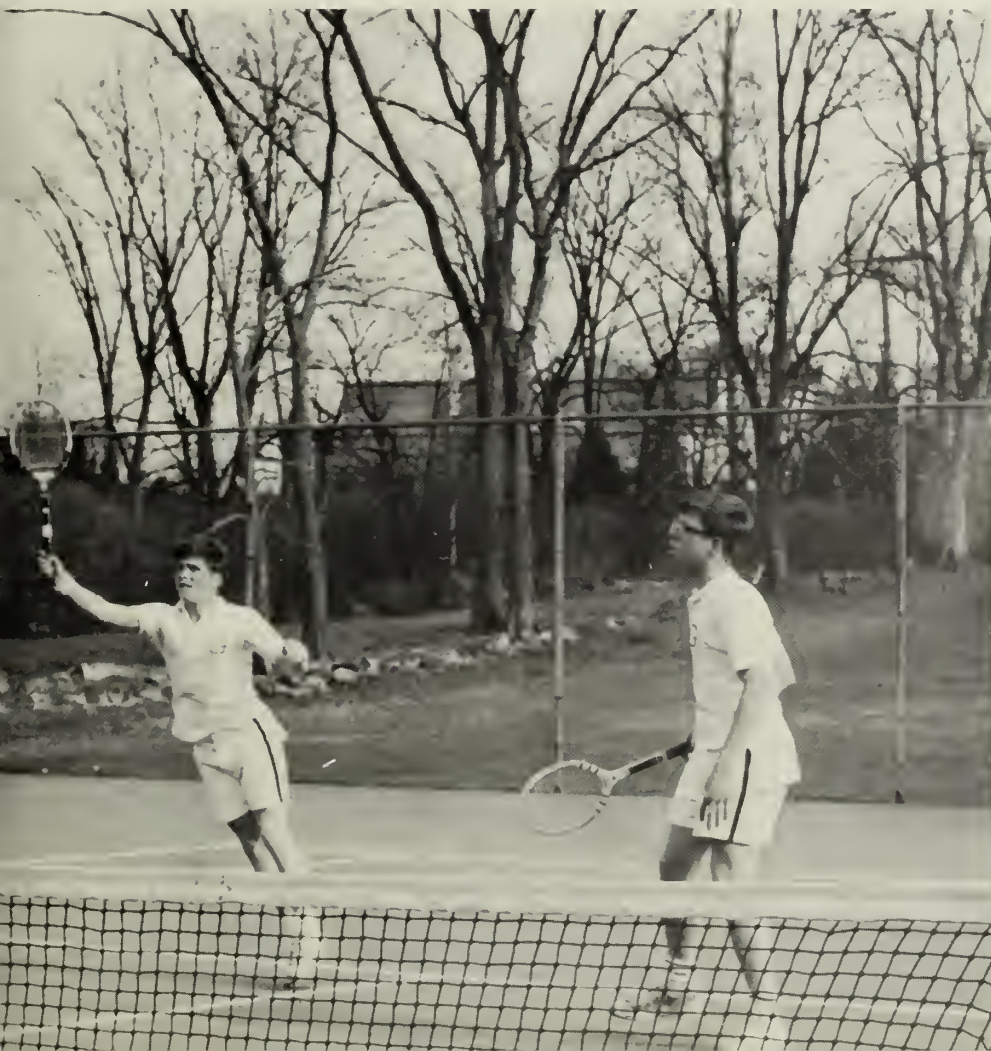

Captain Peter Imber played well all year against very tough competition. Captain-elect Billy Alfond, playing in the number one position all season, was chosen the most valuable player. Roy Meyers completed a successful season, winning six of his seven matches.

With six team members returning next year, coach J. J. Witherspoon looks forward to a stronger team.

Led by the captain and most valuable player, Faisal Al-Qatami, the Governor Dummer tennis team won three consecutive matches early in the season. These victories proved to be the only bright spots in an otherwise disappointing spring, as the team faded against the stronger opponents.

Despite a shoulder injury, Al-Qatami played well all season and compiled an 8-1-2 record. Peter Hicks and Mark Starr played numbers two and three respectively. Star was the team's second high scorer. Captain-elect Dan Morgan, Tim Browne, and Scott Tenney alternated in the other three positions.

The highlight of the season was the 14-4 victory over Groton. Al-Qatami and Cameron played well in their singles, while Mark Starr defeated their captain 6-0. 6-0. This victory was GDA's first over Groton in several years.

Mr. King commented: "I feel that the boys this year overcame their personal desires and started thinking more in terms of the team. I credit this to our partial success."

With Morgan and Hicks leading five returning lettermen next year, the prospects are good for a more successful season next year.

COMMENCEMENT

... for the benefit of both themselves and the school

Mr. Wilkie presents the Morse Flag to Russell Eaton Thomas.

Scott Magrane receives the Academy Prize.

The Morse Flag was first awarded at the 150th Commencement of this school on June 9, 1913, and it has been awarded each year since that time to the senior whose record in all respects has met with the highest approval of the faculty. According to the trust established by the late Reverend Glenn Tilley Morse, long-time friend and trustee of the Academy, a new flag is provided each year in order that the old flag which has flown during the past year may be given to a member of the graduating class.

This year the Morse Flag is awarded to Russell Eaton Thomas of Greencastle, Indiana.

Each year two young men are singled out for their outstanding accomplishments during the senior year. One receives the Morse Flag, which was awarded this morning; the other receives the Academy Prize.

For many years the Academy Prize was maintained by the mother of Headmaster Emeritus Edward W. Eames. In June 1959 the underclassmen of the Academy endowed this prize so that henceforth at each Commencement it could be given "in honor of Edward W. and Eleanor K. Eames so that the qualities they so deeply prized might be prized in turn by future and succeeding classes." It is awarded to that senior who by his unselfishness and sportsmanship has best exemplified the spirit of the school.

The Academy Prize is this year awarded to J. Scott Magrane, Jr. of Montclair, New Jersey.

The Bausch and Lomb award goes to that student who, in the estimation of the faculty, has been most outstanding in the study of science. Not only has the winner of the medal been a high honor student in science during his junior and senior years, but he has also been noted as a student blessed with that rare gift of originality of thought. I cannot let this opportunity go by without also mentioning the tremendous contribution he has made to the growth of photography in the school and particularly to the calibre of the photography in the school publications. . . . It is my pleasure to award the Bausch and Lomb Medal to:

Jeffrey Howard Kane of Swampscott

The Goodwin Athletic Prize, established by Mr. Fred H. Goodwin of the Class of 1916, and a trustee of the Academy from 1916 to 1949, is given to the senior who, by athletic achievement and sportsmanship, has brought the greatest honor to his school during the past year.

In the athletic world, there are some players who attract great public attention — in part by performance and in part by circumstances of the position they play. As a guard in football, his performance was seldom noted by the casual observer, but his role was so vital to the success of the team that he received the Most Valuable Player award. He led a young and inexperienced hockey team extremely well, not only by the example of his own fine play, but even more through the extra time and effort he devoted to helping younger players. This afternoon you witnessed his last game in a Governor Dummer baseball uniform.

Sportsman, keen competitor, leader — all of these qualities are combined in

Ralph Emerson Sexton, II of Winchester

Ralph Sexton is awarded the Goodwin Athletic Prize.

Deke August, winner of the Gaffney Prize.

With the advent of new facilities, music has taken a further step toward the center of life at the Academy. The winner of the Barriskill Prize has been a major force in this development. Not only is he blessed with a fine voice, but he also plays the violin, piano, and organ. Through miraculous organization of time, he also belongs to the Newburyport Choral Society and occasionally serves as a substitute organist for one of the local churches. How could one find a better candidate for the Barriskill Prize than

Alan Lewis Chase of Newburyport

The Gaffney Prize, established in memory of Robert A. Gaffney of the Class of 1940, is awarded to that senior who, in the opinion of his teachers, has been most considerate of the rights, opinions, and sensibilities of others.

The youth of today is often accused of excessive cynicism, of a lack of firm beliefs, of an unwillingness to express personal convictions, and an absence of concern about others. The recipient of this prize, through his actions and attitudes, belies this stereotype. An unusually thoughtful and considerate young man is the winner of the Gaffney Prize:

Robert Diedrich August of Manchester, Vermont

The Ingham Fund Scholarship is awarded to Steven Frederick Barghorn of Cambridge.

The Richard Hawes Francis Scholarship is presented to Stephen Frederick Gripper of Saugus.

The Harvard Book Prize is awarded to that member of the junior class deemed most worthy through high scholarship and character. It is given to Roy Elder Adams Hope of Bloomington, Indiana.

The Dean Channing Hale Scholarship is awarded to that student who, through his own perseverance, has shown the most improvement in the various aspects of school and has contributed to the well being of the Governor Dummer community. James Christie Nervus of Red Bank, New Jersey.

The Timothy R. Wittemore Award is given to William Lee Alford of Waterville, Maine.

The Cumings Prize was established by the family and friends of the late Fred T. Cumings of Troy, New Hampshire. It is awarded annually to a boy who has shown perseverance, hard work, and good spirit in overcoming obstacles and disappointments.

In one sense I find it very difficult to award this prize, and in another sense a great pleasure and privilege. Perseverance and conscientiousness have been his watchword, but even more important, he has seen fit to rise above his own problems while guiding others through challenging times. He is the embodiment of the constructive and sensitive leader. A significant part of the success of his school year can be attributed to

Through the kindness and generosity of Mr. Milton L. Dodge of Newburyport, we are once again able to present a group of Special Prizes to members of the senior class whose perseverance, courage, initiative, or sense of responsibility has contributed to the strength of the Academy.

The first Special Prize goes to a senior who comes very close indeed to being the indispensable man in the community. An extraordinary manager of three varsity athletic teams, a member of Movie and Dance Committees, he has also been the major domo of the new arts center. He is one of those rare individuals who sees the job to be done and then does it superbly well on his own initiative.

Frederick Johnson Shepard of Marblehead

In any group, one can identify a few people who make the greatest use of their own abilities and who also show thoughtfulness and concern for others. Such a young man is the winner of the second Special Prize. He has used his talents to the full, and in his own quiet way has served his fellows and has made an outstanding contribution to his school.

James Connolly McGuire of New London, Connecticut

How often have we all enjoyed the experience of meeting someone whose indefinable qualities of personality infect a group of which we are a part — that someone who enters the room and by so doing makes everyone feel more cheerful and closer to his fellow man. Such a person came over our horizon last fall. He has become very much a part of us and has made a great contribution simply by allowing us to see ourselves and our school through his perceptive eyes and his warm heart.

Faisal Yousif Essa Al-Qatami

The fourth Special Prize is awarded to a senior who has carried large responsibility and carried it very well indeed. Any leader of men must ultimately learn the lessons of firmness, impartiality, judgment, and conviction. This Special Prize is awarded to

Brock Webster Callen of Rumson, New Jersey

A Special Prize is presented to Alan Chase.

A Special Prize is awarded to Horace Wait.

In these days of excessive specialization, it is refreshing to find a young man possessing a broad range of interests and abilities. We do have one to whom I referred a year ago as a modern version of the Renaissance man. If any student has taken advantage of the opportunities available to him and lived life to the full, it is

The sixth Special Prize goes to a senior who has made a significant contribution to the school — as a fine scholar, as a small but scrappy varsity athlete, as a dormitory proctor, as a member of the Milestone Board, and as chairman of the swinging and successful spring prom. Perhaps he is cited even more this evening for his bright spirit, good humor, and warm interest in others.

Horace Richard Wait, III of Skaneateles, New York

The final Special Prize provides well-earned recognition for a senior who has demonstrated unusual maturity and purpose. During his years at Governor Dummer, he has experienced periods of self-doubt, times when his struggles toward his conception of the right brought only disapprobation. This year his leadership and influence have been widespread. He has shown the courage of his own convictions and the ability necessary to command the respect of those whom he has led and will lead in the years to come.

Garret Dempsey Leahey, Jr. of Lowell

Garry Leahey receives the final Special Prize.

The Moody Kent Prizes are given annually to those students throughout the school who have achieved outstanding records in various academic departments. No more than one Moody Kent Prize may be awarded to the same boy.

The Moody Kent Prize for the highest standing in English is awarded to Russell Eaton Thomas of Greencastle, Indiana.

The prize for the highest standing in French to Theodore Douglass Bergmann of Manhasset, New York.

The Moody Kent Prize for the highest standing in Spanish is awarded to Nicholas Thornton Clark Apollonio of Rockport, Maine.

The Prize for the highest standing in Latin goes to Thomas Glanville Taylor of Providence, Rhode Island.

The Moody Kent Prize for the highest standing in German is awarded to William Walter Jaffe of Fall River.

The Prize for the highest standing in History goes to Henry Horenstein of West Newton.

The Moody Kent Prize for the highest standing in Science is awarded to Bradshaw Nelson Dorsey of Beverly.

The Prize for the highest standing in Mathematics goes to Peter Bradlee Sargent of South Byfield.

The Edmund Coffin Colman Scholarship, established by the late Elizabeth S. Tappan is awarded for proficiency in languages. During the next academic year, this scholarship will be held by Peter Lewis Navins of South Byfield.

The Ambrose Prize Speaking awards go to the three members of the class who have gained the greatest proficiency in various phases of public speaking. The 1st, 2nd, and 3rd prizes go to:

Jeffrey Howard Kane of Swampscott

David Parker Sheppard, Jr. of Washington, D.C.

Peter Knapp Imber of Reading, Pennsylvania

The Thorndike Hilton Cup was established by the Class of 1919 in memory of their classmate, Thorndike Hilton. It is awarded each year to the ranking scholar in the senior class. The ranking scholar in the Class of 1965 combines academic ability and achievement with other broad interest and a mind both perceptive and inquisitive. The Thorndike Hilton Cup is awarded to Russell Eaton Thomas of Greencastle, Indiana.

The Class of 1965

CUM LAUDE

The Governor Dummer Chapter of the Cum Laude Society received its charter in 1934. The purpose of the society is to promote scholarship and to recognize scholastic achievement. To be eligible for election to the society a student must maintain a minimum standing of eighty percent during senior year and must stand in the upper fifth of his class. A three-fourths vote of the faculty members is necessary for election; and the members are pledged to consider each candidate's record during earlier years of secondary school work, his diligence, particular abilities and deficiencies, and the nature and number of courses upon which his average is based. Of the Class of 1965 eleven were elected.

Co-operation between the faculty and the student body has resulted in the stimulation of the individual's intellect for the benefit of both himself and the entire school.

THE 1965 MILESTONE

GOVERNOR DUMMER ACADEMY
SOUTH BYFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

DEDICATION

When Valteau Wilkie came to Governor Dummer in 1959, his aims for the advancement of the school were but dreams, and his ability as an administrator was unknown. Since that Fall his efforts have brought about great growth for the school and the realization of many of these dreams. He has strengthened the curriculum with added courses in a more diverse range. His vigor has made possible the enlargement of the physical plant, two of the more noteworthy additions being the Moseley Chapel and the Thompson Art Center. They are significant in that they manifest the true meaning of the school, the stimulation of the intellect. Through his insight and devotion to the student body, he has increased the responsibility of each student to the school and to himself. Finally he has made closer the ties between the administration and the students. Truly Valteau Wilkie has a dynamic personality and a great devotion to the boys of the Academy. The goals he set upon himself for the advancement of the school were high, but he has more than achieved them. He has proven his ability. For these reasons the 1965 Milestone is dedicated respectfully to Valteau Wilkie, Jr.

IN MEMORIAM

Timothy Whittemore came to us in 1962 as a member of the sophomore class and quickly found many friends among the faculty and students. Although his stay at Governor Dummer was short, it was eventful for both him and those immediately concerned with him. His participation in the Glee Club and membership in the Meistersingers were both indicative of his co-operation and his desire to enter into school life. We realized later the enormity of this accomplishment when we found that he had been suffering in silence all the while. Tim was an example of courage we all can always aspire to.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The production of a yearbook is by necessity a long and difficult process. Many hours of hard work have gone into The 1965 Milestone. This work has not been done by the Milestone board alone, however; some of those to whom the board owes its appreciation are:

Mrs. Marjorie J. Rouisse for her accounting and bookkeeping.

Miss Lousise Lovell and the entire office staff for their special information.

Mr. Richard Weir, the representative from the American Yearbook Company, who aided us in the actual production of the book.

Mr. Roy Hult of Hult Studios in Melrose whose excellent photography has improved the quality of the book.

The Milestone staff for their assistance in the tedious areas of the production of the book.

Our advertisers without whom the book would have been impossible.

Mr. Douglas Miller who has faithfully stood by us to help whenever he could.

Mr. Miller

Miss Lovell

This was a time to remember. We present the record of this time that the memory may live in the hearts of those who created it.

One of the most devoted faculty members in the long history of Governor Dummer is Mr. Edgar Daniel Dunning. He is a member of the "old guard" along with Mr. Murphy, Mr. Mercer, and Mr. Sager. After graduating from Union College in 1924, he went on to receive his M.A. from Princeton. He then taught at the University of Richmond and the University of Rochester before coming here in 1930. Originally involved in the Math and English Departments, Mr. Dunning, upon his appointment as Business Manager, shifted his concentration to the administration of the school. Under his direction the school has witnessed many improvements; he has been concerned with every major school addition, the most significant of which is the Frost Building.

Concerned with both school and community, he has served as a commissioner of the Byfield Water District and as a member of the Planning Board of the Town of Newbury; he is also a past president of the Association of Business Officers of New England Preparatory Schools. He is respected and liked by all that come in contact with him. During the Fall we missed him because of his illness.

Mr. Dunning's limited return for the remainder of the year is indicative of his most distinguishing characteristic—dedication. It is the devotion of thirty-five years service to the Academy; a devotion inherent in the school's development and progress.

UNDERCLASSMEN

The individual learning to co-operate

CLASS OF 1966

The junior year is a difficult and crucial year. Each student, whether he likes it or not, finds himself faced with great responsibility and pressure. He must prepare himself for his coming role as a senior; and, at the same time, he is plunged into the race for college admissions. His grades as a junior are most important because his college placement, to a large extent, depends upon them.

The initial years at GDA are devoted to the development of basic skills, such as training in grammar, vocabulary building, and learning the fundamentals of composition. When the student reaches his junior year, he finds that the work is more challenging in that the expression of ideas, the analysis of written work, and the synthesis of various materials come to the forefront. As a result, the junior must adopt himself to this new kind of learning experience. This adjustment is an integral part of the maturing process.

Academically, Steve Barghoorn, Henry Eu, Walt Jaffe, and Dave Stevens have been on the honor roll consistently. Others have been slipping on and off all year, proving that within the junior class competition is great.

The Class of '66 is also remarkably athletic. Its members include Ted Caldwell and Tim Maier, probably two of the more noteworthy athletes ever to be found at Governor Dummer. Other junior athletes include Grove Cooke, Scott Emerson, Ford Schumann, and Scott Tenney.

The junior year is a year of self-examination. Classes themselves change. Being taught to analyze in class, students apply this to things around them, and informal talks with faculty members and fellow students become less useless and more intellectual. A growing awareness of the pressures of college admissions prompts a junior to scrutinize himself, his capabilities, and his failings. Their more mature judgment leads them to the realization that the faculty and student leaders have set for the school various standards which have meaning and purpose. Although not in complete agreement with these standards, they are now less resentful and more understanding of the rules and more receptive to and appreciative of advice.

The Class of 1966 has shown that it can and will accept the responsibilities and pressures of later years. Members of the class have become very enthusiastic in their involvement with the school and its activities. By a personal analysis, the junior has not only improved himself, but he has aided the school. He has shown himself to be a mature individual.

CLASS OF 1967

During the sophomore year the Governor Dummer student must adjust himself to a new position in the school. The sophomore finds early in the year that he must work a great deal harder than in previous years. He gradually becomes more involved in the school's activities. The sophomore must adjust his attitude in this new involvement.

For the most part, the sophomore immediately feels a great burst of freedom and power. After a year as a member of the youngest class, the student, early in his sophomore year, becomes quite confident of himself, his capabilities, and his authority. The outward manifestations are conceit and selfishness. This is perhaps the result of his age. However, as the year goes on, the sophomore adjusts to his new role in the school society. He learns to work with a greater purpose than he had in previous years. With a broader involvement in the activities of the school, the sophomore learns to respect and appreciate the school, the faculty, and his contemporaries. His original conceit vanishes as he accepts responsibility and matures.

This year was like every year in the past. The sophomore class adapted, early in the year, to its new position in school life. For some, maturity came hard. But, on the whole, the class accepted a new involvement in the school and an increased responsibility to the school. Many from the class contributed significantly in scholastic endeavors, on athletic teams, and in extracurricular activities. Stan Greenberg, David Marsh, Reid Pugh, and Dwight Reid continually had honor roll averages. In sports, sophomores Keith Adolph, Bill Alford, Hugh Munro, and Jim Nevius contributed greatly to the success of many teams.

This year's sophomore class has adjusted to its new responsibilities very well. Specific boys became prominent in every phase of school life, while all of the boys established a greater involvement in the society of Governor Dummer. As the year progressed, the sophomore's egoism changed into a respect for the school, its rules, and its members.

CLASS OF 1968

Each fall a new group of freshmen arrives at Governor Dummer. There are new names, new faces, but in many respects they are like every class before them. Every group is aided in the same way by the school and its faculty, and with each group goes the hope that they will be better than any before them. The students themselves, as freshmen, pass through a common cycle.

A majority of the boys who come to Governor Dummer as freshmen arrive with an ignorance of their new society. Their first year is spent in the process of conforming to the life here. Dress, habits, and even language undergo change. A naive attitude must quickly give way to one of omniscient cynicism. Once this transition is completed, the freshman is prepared to grasp all that surrounds him. He is no longer an impressionable youth, but rather an aware member of his society.

This year's freshman class has accomplished this change. They have become aware of their role at Governor Dummer, not just as freshmen, but as members of its society. Academically, they have continued in the trend of rising scholastic standards. Mike Lappin, Bob Martin, Ned Merriman, and Marc Tucker have compiled excellent records. Athletic teams on all levels have been helped by this class as indicated by the undefeated Pony Football team. Among those who distinguished themselves athletically are Trux Hulbert, Jon and Nat Smith, Carl Spang, and John Wannop. This entire class will continue to strengthen the school in studies, on the fields, and in all activities.

The Class of 1968 has proven to be like so many other freshman classes of the past. Individual members have excelled academically and athletically, while others were somewhat obscure; the latter will hopefully be further developed in the next three years. As freshmen, they have developed their initial naïveté into a cynical awareness of their contemporaries; they have become assimilated into the student body.

The epitome of ease and contentment of freshman year.

Trux and Bill get the proper nourishment.

Better than Mr. Ogden's playbook, guys?

The Editors laugh it off.

But where is the money!

Oh, those supplements!

The Milestone Office, shrouded by a dark curtain and the door of Conference A, served a double purpose this year as the headquarters of the oft-forgotten art of yearbook making and of the Group, a mystical, semi-secret society that counts weed fiends, hackers, and assorted others among its members. The Editor was either Boss or Friend, and the Group's fun and games program fared accordingly. The two battled for supremacy throughout the year, the latter winning out after 10:30 when the Office became the Group's Show Room.

The end of the year saw the downfall of the Editor, a would-be adult, who was seduced into divulging Milestone secrets. The Managing Editors, the Group's supposed stalwarts, were often ready to go over the hill, but were restrained by the long arm of the Physics' Psycho. The overbearing Business Managers devised a devilish ad enticement; and the scrubs were set to work to enact it. When the staff wasn't grubbing for ads, they were hustling burgers or writing articles. The Photographic Editors often hibernated into the dark room for night-long vigils at the chemical bath. When assorted Ghandis were apprehended using the Group's varied facilities, the Circulation Managers performed their duty well, and often wheedled a subscription or two out of them.

Despite these problems, this yearbook is the result of the co-operation and the enthusiasm of every individual associated with it. It is their sincere hope that this book is a truly representative account of the events of the past year.

In depth reporting.

Armed with a provocative imagination and a keen dissatisfaction with the drabness of schoolboy newspapering, Editor-in-Chief Russell Thomas undertook this year to reshape the basic character of the Governor.

The writing of the paper improved not only in quality, but in correctness through the diligence of Managing and Feature Editors Chuck Dunton and Doug Bergmann.

Although definite improvements were the increase in sub-varsity sports coverage and a greater number of issues, the paper's new editorial system was the most significant innovation. This policy enabled various board members to state their views on current issues, consequently giving the paper a broader prospectus.

The success of the paper was further indicated by the statement of the faculty advisor Mr. Linberg. "Intelligent modification and change, such as in the areas of organization, make-up and design are to their credit. Future Governor Boards will have to do much to create as fine a record as has this one."

BAND

Under the able guidance of Mr. Smink, a band was organized for the first time in the past decade. Its principal objective was to support the football team at the various home games and to give the boys a sense of participation and experience unobtainable in the past. Despite the limitations of few experienced musicians, Mr. Smink feels that the group was a definite success, primarily because of the performances of drummer Steve Levings and trumpeter Dave Olier.

The band's highlight was the rally before the Belmont Hill game which gave the school its first indication of the group's real potential. Mr. Smink said, "Everyone expected tooters but came away with the realization that they had heard a real band."

Mr. Smink hopes to organize a more active band next fall with a large segment of this year's band returning.

PHILOSOPHY SEMINAR

This year the Philosophy Seminar, the most significant addition to the school's extra-curricular program, was organized under the direction of Mr. Robert Ball. Members met weekly and discussed various works which they had read prior to these meetings. Because there is no course which covers this, Mr. Ball feels that the seminar's purpose is "not to teach facts, but to create an appreciation of the problems concerning classical works." Some of the more significant works read throughout the year were Aristotle, Descartes, Hume, and Kierkegaard.

RELIGIOUS DISCUSSION

Mr. Mercer

A reorganization of the Religious discussion groups brought increased interest in the upper two classes. This year there were four groups, three senior and one junior; their weekly meetings saw heated discussions on a wide range of topics.

One new aspect of these meetings was that Mr. Mercer, the school chaplain, allowed the boys to chose their own topics of conversation, a definite improvement over past procedures. The major topic of his two groups was concerned with the social problems in the application of Christian doctrines. The remaining two, under Mr. Ball, bandied about the problems of cynicism, social injustice, the internal differences of Christianity and the contrast between them and other world religions.

Throughout these informal seminars, the boys have obtained a feeling of ease in stating their views, a further understanding of their contemporary society, and a broadening of their religious concepts.

THE FALL

FOOTBALL

The Governor Dummer football team was truly one of the best in the last ten years. The two reasons for this superiority were: the nucleus of eight returning lettermen and the desire to overcome the lack of spirit of last year's team. Although the team was plagued with injuries, penalties, and inconsistency it had a four-three winning season, including a 24-14 loss to rival Belmont Hill.

GDA opened the season with an unexpected 34-23 win over Saint Sebastian's beating them for the first time in six years. The victory was primarily a result of an excellent kicking game by John Mackenzie and the typically outstanding performance of Co-captain elect Tim Maier, who rushed and passed for one hundred and eighty yards.

The hopes for a successful season grew the following week when Browne and Nichols was routed 32-0. The Red exploded in the second half with Maier, Tenny, Heald, and MacKenzie all scoring. However, it was the defensive unit of MacKenzie, Leahey, Kingsbury, and Co-captain Browne that received the praise of the coaching staff as they allowed the visitors only one hundred and eight yards. This game marked first shutout for the Governors since 1960.

Despite a rain-soaked field and more than one hundred yards in penalties, GDA easily beat an inferior Moses Brown team. Maier again highlighted the afternoon with accurate passes to Co-captain elect Schumann and Tenney. The defensive team was also alert intercepting four passes including one returned for a touchdown by Co-captain Scott Magrane. Unfortunately, in this game Tim Browne broke his collar bone and was unable to play for the remainder of the season.

At Milton, the team was awakened from its complacency by a jarring 24-14 loss to a bigger and far more aggressive team than they had met previously. The loss of Ralph Sexton, the team's most consistent defensive player and the MVP. hurt the Red's general spirit.

The loss of spirit carried over into the Parent's Day Game against Groton and the Governors were beaten 14-6 despite the encouraging cheers of the large home crowd. The offense played its poorest game of the season and barely managed to gain one hundred and fifty yards.

GDA pulled out of its slump with a strong 22-0 shutout against St. Mark's. The offense controlled the play and the team punted only once. Maier's passing was hard to defend against, and he gained one hundred and fourteen yards in the air.

Against Belmont Hill, a weak first period defense let the Hillies get off to a good start which was impossible to make up. The only bright moment of the afternoon came when Magrane returned a kickoff ninety-five yards for a touchdown.

The team is best described in the words of Head Coach Anderson: "The football team was the finest I have coached. Not only did they produce the third winning season in ten seasons, but they displayed a selflessness that I have seldom seen before. The willingness of the regulars to adjust to new positions and a dedicated attitude of the other squad members was the key to this team's success."

The prospects of the 1964 Soccer season were dim. Only four lettermen, including Co-captains Brock Callen and David Fuess, were returning from a relatively unsuccessful 1963 season. However, in early practices it became apparent that the squad had improved greatly over the previous year. The largest surprise was the arrival of Faisal Al-Qatami, an exchange student from Kuwait, who started at center forward and was the team's high scorer. The squad's optimism grew after an encouraging 2-1 win over Exeter in a pre-season scrimmage.

A week later a 3-0 loss to Andover was blamed on opening game nervousness, and spirits were dampened. The team had shown in instances that it could function as a unit and control the play with short passes.

In the League opener, against Noble and Greenough, the Governors combined offensive and defensive play to win a 3-0 shutout. Using its short passing brand of soccer, the team arrived at a second shutout against Browne and Nichols, 2-0. The next game was played in the rain with the only score on a penalty kick by Al-Qatami. After this 1-0 defeat of Brooks the team was tied for first place in the League.

Taking a break from League play, the Red travelled to St. Paul's where they met a strong opposition and two incompetent officials. Jim McGuire assured the team with at least a tie when he scored a goal with only twenty seconds to play. The game ended in a 1-1 tie as neither team was able to score in the overtime.

Assured that the League title could be won, the team's overconfidence led to disaster in a 5-0 loss to a superior Milton team. Part of the defensive problem may have been the fact that Co-captain Fuess was unable to play.

The best game of soccer that Governor Dummer played all year was on Parent's Day against the League champions, Tabor. Neither team was able to score, but the Governors dominated the play on both offense and defense.

The next game, against Medford High, resulted in the team's third tie of the year.

At St. Mark's the team ran into the same problems that they had against Milton, and were just not able to put their passes together for an offensive attack.

The last week of the season the Red was finally able to work together, and received the breaks. Against Middlesex, Scott Emerson showed his potential and helped the team earn a 3-2 victory. In the final game, against Belmont Hill, the team again played superior soccer winning 3-1. McGuire saved the game from being a tie scoring the winning goal in the second overtime. Al-Qatami assured the team the victory with his goal seconds after McGuire's. Defensively, Phil Kan was superb as he had been all season, and deserved the MVP which he shared with Al-Qatami.

Ending up with a 5-4-3 record, Mr. Navins felt that, "The boys exerted one hundred per cent effort at all times, and on many occasions one hundred and ten per cent. This is all any coach can ask from a group of boys. It was one of the most gratifying seasons in many a year."

The Governor Dummer Cross Country Team entered the 1964 season with overly high hopes which made their disappointing season even more dismal. Four lettermen returned from last year, including the number one man from the 1963 season, Captain Steve Rolfe. Two of the lettering seniors became apathetic, and did not work for team positions which considerably hurt the Governor's morale and scoring possibilities. Rolfe and Sullivan continually performed well, with Rolfe winning the last four meets of the year. Seniors Doug Hannon and Chuck Dunton ran very well, but were unable to provide the support to win meets.

Besides this lack of depth the team was faced with superior opponents. The team coach, Mr. Fenn, remarked, "Although our runners definitely improved over previous years, other schools improved more." Even the teams that had formally had problems on the Red's tough course were able to win meets on it.

By the end of the season, the team had improved remarkably, even more than in past years. Freshman Trux Hulbert worked hard all season until he eventually became the number five man. Keith Adolph, a sophomore and next year's captain, fought all season with Hannon for the number three position. Adolph and Hulbert with some strong underclass backing should provide next year's team with a far more satisfactory season than was this one.

Summing up this year's team Mr. Fenn has said, "The fellows did work very hard; they tried constantly to improve their times; and they put on a good showing. You can't ask for more."

With five lettermen and three squad members returning from a good team in 1964, the outlook for the 1965 season was excellent. The Private School League title which GDA won in 1962 was the team's primary goal. This was obtained partially by a tremendous desire of the individuals involved and partially by a competitive attitude that was to be the most important single factor of the season.

Noble and Greenough, Browne and Nichols, and Milton were easily defeated early in the season. The team's hopes for an undefeated season were ended, however, in the fifth game against Saint Sebastians's. In a low scoring, 34-30, game the Saints won on a combination of ball control, poor rebounding by the Red, and a second quarter in which the Governors scored only two points. The next six games were not difficult to win as the team averaged seventy-one points to the opposition's forty-eight.

After playing and defeating weaker teams for three weeks, the second Milton game took on added significance as a win by the Red would give them the league title. The Red won. The game was much closer than the 61-49 score indicates, but GDA's attitude and superior rebounding were the deciding factors.

John Mackenzie, Ted Caldwell, and Scott Emerson, all taller than 6'4", gave the Governors' the tallest forecourt in the league. Tim Maier and Pete Imber ball handled in the backcourt and were alternately spelled by Bill Alfond. Caldwell and Emerson each averaged over thirteen points per game, with Maier and Imber close behind with eleven and ten respectively. Mackenzie averaged over eight per game while grabbing many precious rebounds. The importance of these rebounds is shown by the fact that in periods when the team rebounded poorly, they were also outscored.

Although the team was exceedingly talented at the beginning of the season, the players have all improved under the coaching of Mr. Williams. Their aggressiveness has impressed both opposing players and coaches; they have equaled their potential which will be further developed next year with the return of three starters and numerous squad members.

The future of the Governor Dummer hockey team was uncertain at the start of the 1965 season. Losses in the line and defense would harm their record. Also, since the Prep School League was inordinately strong this year, its record would suffer doubly. Consequently, the team started slowly and lost their first five games. It was against Middlesex that the team started to show its potential. GDA led 3-1 in the third period after playing a great game, only to falter and lose 4-3. Despite this 3rd period letdown, their play was substantially better than it had been before. In the following four games, the Governors won three, and through the rest of the season, even though suffering many losses to very fine opponents, their play continued to improve.

Considering the caliber of their opponents, the defense had a difficult assignment. It, however, performed admirably under all conditions. Captain Ralph Sexton was a consistent standout. In the words of Coach Eames, "He was one of the best defensemen in the League." Ralph also played the line and was the team's high point scorer. Junior Sim Hyde and sophomore Teddy Follansbee assisted Ralph in the defensive assignments. In the goal, Steve Gripper showed much ability. His "classic" goalie moves helped him to make a surprising number of saves. Toward the end of the season, reserve goalie, Ford Schumann, had improved and played regularly.

On the line, Don Crocker, Jack Gregg, and Scott Tenney played, on the average, over half of each game. Other regular skaters on the Governor Dummer team were sophomore linemen Tony Gerard, Biff Clark, and Hugh Munro. The experience they gained by playing this year will be valuable to the team in following years.

The team fought hard for every win, every goal, every break. It had limited ability, but worked towards its potential. The pride of the members of the team was evident throughout the season.

The prospects for next season are indeed brighter than they have been for some time. With the depth of experience gained this year, a much stronger Governor team should be seen in the ensuing years.

With only eight returning lettermen, the Winter Track team was more dependent on the effort of each member than in the past. The addition of several boys after Christmas vacation, especially sprinter Jeff Weber, gave the team some badly needed strength. The will to win and the desire to improve were the most important factors as GDA once again went undefeated in dual meets.

The pre-season meet with Exeter showed the team its strengths and weaknesses. The season opened with a quadrangular meet in which the team placed third to Exeter and Nashua High School, beating Hebron. However, with the Captains, Steve Rolfe and Jay Allen, and Keith Kingsbury sick, the team was handicapped and did not show its true potential.

ACADEMY TRACK TEAM — 4th ROW: Eu, Manager; Messrs. In the Prep School Relay Championship at the B.A.A. Games on January 30, the mile relay team of Doug Hannon, Steve Barghoorn, Jeff Weber, and Steve Rolfe placed fifth. Then, in the Private School Winter Track meet, the Governors placed third behind Moses Brown and Mount Hermon. Exceptional performances came from Jay Allen, who broke the shot put record, and Steve Rolfe, who set a new 1000 yard run record.

On February 17, the Governors defeated the MIT Freshmen, and they showed that they were ready for Moses Brown. Although the Moses Brown meet ended in a tie, the team showed its improvement as Doug Hannon, Jeff Weber, Steve Uhl, Steve Barghoorn, Charlie Estes, Trux Hulbert, Dave Sullivan, Tom Walker, and Steve Rolfe all had personal bests in their respective events. In the closing meet of the season at Tabor, the Red team won easily.

Only through the excellent coaching of Mr. Sperry and the leadership of Captains Allen and Rolfe could this season have been so successful.

Once again the wrestling team finished an excellent season with eight wins and one loss. There were two factors involved: a tremendous team desire, and the coaching of Mr. G. Heberton Evans.

The season began with Browne and Nichols, a hard team to go against in the first meet. The lower weights gave the team a quick lead by winning two decisions, but the middle weights suffered a number of losses with the exception of win at 133 by Captain Alan Chase. However, Scott Magrane, Dudley Glover, and Garry Leahey assured the victory with two falls and a decision respectively.

In the Andover meet the lower the middle weights combined to provide a comfortable lead which was not offset by losses at 147, 157, or 167. Leahey's decision at 177 won the meet for the Red. This was followed by Glover's impressive 6-5 win over Thomas.

Belmont Hill proved hardly a match as they forfeited three weight classes.

In the St. Mark's meet, the first and last three weights, as in previous meets, provided for the fourth straight win.

Brooks also felt the powerful light weights, although the outstanding bout of the afternoon was between Roy Hope and the opposition's captain at 138. The match was a draw. The red team won 26-18.

G.D.A. suffered its only loss to Exeter by a 15-22 point score. The most outstanding aspects of the meet were the wins of Dave Olikar, Jim Nevius, and Fred Barker, who beat last year's 115 lb. interscholastic champion. Despite both a 9-0 lead and good win by Hope, disappointing loses at 127, 147, and 157 placed the Red too far behind for the heavyweights to make up.

At Milton the situation was different in that the usual light-weight lead, coupled with wins by Brad Dorsey and Cameron, assured the team victory. Dudley Glover also wrestled well against a far heavier opponent.

Lawrence, previously undefeated, was taken by the lower weights.

The Red team finished the season with a 30-9 defeat of Tabor. Again the lightweights of Oliker, Barker, and Nevius were outstanding as each pinned his opponent during the first period. Rich Wait finished the season with a win. Chase, Hope, Magrane, Leahey, and Glover all won by decision, although the most impressive match was Magrane's 5-1 decision over the Tabor captain.

In the Interscholastics held at Mount Hermon the G.D.A. wrestling team finished third to the host school and to Exeter. Underclassman Dave Oliker won the 110 lb. championship, while Barker at 115 and Hope at 138 finished second in their weight classes. Nevius and Leahey each took a third as Chase and Glover finished fourth.

Most credit for the successful season is due to the competitive spirit of the individuals on the team; but recognition should also be given to the leadership of Alan Chase and to the unequalled coaching of Mr. Evans which is indicated by his combining of eleven personalities into a single unit.

LEADER IN ENGINEERED AIR CONDITIONING

TRANE Climate Changer Air Conditioners are manufactured to the same high standards that have made TRANE famous as a leading manufacturer of big building air conditioning systems. When you buy air conditioning, look for the TRANE trademark. It is your assurance of the finest.

TRANE Climate Changers are sold by TRANE Authorized Dealers. These dealers are local businessmen — who not only sell Climate Changers, but install, service and stand back of the installation.

ALBION
THE V CIRCLE

Nobody knows how many hundreds of thousands of people will dine tonight with TOWLE Sterling — but the actual number would be startling. For in the two-and-a-half centuries that beautiful silver has been made in Newburyport, the demand for its patterns has moved steadily upward. Craft traditions reaching back almost to the Pilgrims are part of the reason for TOWLE progress, but probably the chief reason is a certain soundness of design — patterns that wear well — that wear so well, in fact, that they become at once a proud possession and a beloved part of family life.
